

All about obtaining the Nepalese visa last updated 11th June 2009

This guide contains 3 sections:

- 1) Nepalese visa facts.
- 2) Obtaining this visa through The China Travel Company.
- 3) Obtaining this visa yourself

1) Nepalese visa facts.

- ★ Everyone needs a Nepalese visa and it strongly recommended that you obtain it in advance of your trip.
- ★ A standard tourist visa is valid to start using from 6 months from the date of issue.
- ★ On entering Nepal the visa is then valid for a stay of 15, 30 or 90 days depending on which visa you require inclusive of the day you enter.
- ★ Extensions are possible once in Nepal.
- ★ Standard tourist visas are for multi-entry for the period of validity (15, 30 or 90 days).

2) Obtaining the visa through The China Travel Company.

- ★ At the time of booking you pay us the visa fee* as stated below.
- ★ We will send you a copy of the Nepalese visa application form.
- ★ We will also send you a "Visa Voucher" showing that you have prepaid us for your visa.

You then need to do the following:

- ★ Complete the application form (one form for each person travelling).
- ★ Attach one proper passport photo to each application form.
- ★ Send the following to the address on the "Visa Voucher."
  - ➔ 1 passport per applicant
  - ➔ 1 passport photo per applicant
  - ➔ 1 completed visa application per applicant
  - ➔ The Visa Voucher

*Visa fees:

Standard service that takes 2 working days (Monday to Friday and not including UK or Nepalese public holidays) inside the embassy to issue.

Multiple entry visa with up to 15 days stay £52.00
Multiple entry visa with up to 30 days stay £67.00
Multiple entry visa with up to 90 days stay £107.00

Please note that visa fees and requirements can change without notice.

3) Obtaining the Nepalese visa yourself.

If you want to get your Nepalese visa by yourself (or through another intermediary such as a visa agent) that is no problem. It is also currently possible to obtain the visa on this border but we do NOT recommend this as it is time consuming and the ability to do this could be withdrawn at any time by the Nepalese authorities without notice making the completion of your trip impossible!

* Please make sure that you allow plenty of time to obtain the visa ***
